

Georgia

State requirements	Mandatory. Georgia requires at least one food service manager on staff who has successfully completed a food safety training program and passed an ANSI-CFP exam. For all new establishments, there is a 90 day grace period to comply with the mandatory manager certification. During this 90 day period, the manager or person in charge must demonstrate food safety knowledge. For existing food establishments, manager certification shall be implemented by 11/2009	Programs accepted are ServSafe, NRFSP, and Prometric : CD Rom, print and online-exams approved with registered proctor
State Department of Agriculture North District (404) 363-7646	Retail Food Section North District Office Food Safety Division Poultry Grading Office 1195 Jesse Jewell Pkwy Gainesville, GA 30504 P: 770-535-5955 F: 770-531-6483 http://www.agr.georgia.gov	No specific training hours, but based on program used. Managers must pass an approved exam. Recertification every 5 years
Atlanta	Metro District Office Food Safety Division Atlanta State Farmers Market 16 Forest Pkwy Bldg 2 - 1 Forest Park, GA 30297 P: 404-363-7646 F: 404-362-2604

Updated 10/01/2012 Check with your local health department for detailed requirements