

Virginia

State requirements	Voluntary. The permit holder shall be the person in charge (PIC) or shall designate a PIC and shall ensure that a PIC is present at the food establishment during all hours of the operation. The PIC may demonstrate knowledge by passing an accredited program and being a Certified Food Protection Manager, but several counties have CFPM requirements (see below)	ServSafe, NRFSP, and Prometric exams approved
State Health Department	Virginia Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services P. O. Box 1163 102 Governor Street Richmond, VA 23219 804.786.8899, FAX: 804.371.7792	http://www.vdacs.virginia.gov/foodsafety/index.shtml
City of Portsmouth	A certified manager must be on premises during all hours of preparation. Only facilities that prepare, cook and serve TCS foods are required to take a class and exam	Hours of instruction-none; exam based only, online course approved, recertification every 3 years
Northampton County (757)-442-6228	Required- each facility must have one Certified Food Protection Manager staffed 40 hours per week	Hours of instruction 16, online course approved, 8hr recertification every 5 years
City of VA Beach	Required – A certified manager must be on premises at least 8 hours per operational day. The manager must be a full-time employee.	Must take 16 hour course & exam. Recertification every 3 years
City of Arlington	Required –Must have a Certified Food Protection Manager on premise during hours of operation	Hours of instruction-none: exam based only, online course approved, recertification every 3 years
Fairfax County	Food establishments operating in Fairfax County must be under the immediate supervision of a Certified Food Manager	Hours of instruction-none: exam based only, online course approved, recertification every 5 years
City of Norfolk	Each establishment must employ a certified full-time manager. Foodhandlers required to have a foodhandler card.	Hours of instruction 16, 4hr recertification every 3 years. Foodhandlers: 1 hour course
City of Hampton	Required-Each establishment must employ a full-time manager.	Hours of instruction 16 course and exam, recertification every 3 years
Gloucester County	All food establishments must have at least one (1) fulltime certified food service manager on staff.	Hours of instruction 16; recertification every 5 years
City of Cheseapeake (757)-382-8672.	Code 2: low risk- 1 employed medium risk- 1 shift per day. Code 1: high risk- certified manager must be on premises during all hours of operation.	Hours of instruction 16, 4hr recertification every 3 years
City of Newport News	A certified manager must be on premises during business hours.	Hours of instruction 16 and exam; no renewal required
Accomack County (757) 787-5841	Required- each facility must have one CFPM staffed 40 hours per week	Hours of instruction 16, recertification every 5 years
City of Alexandria (703)-838-4400	Required-All Food Establishments must operate under the immediate control of a certified food manager.	Hours of instruction 8, recertification every 5 years